The obligation to provide data results from internal regulations and legal provisions.

RIGHTS AND RIGHTS

To exercise your rights, please contact the Controller by e-mail at the above-mentioned contact details of the Data Protection Officer. You have the right to:

1. access to the personal data provided;
2. as a rule - rectify or supplement the personal data provided;

However, we would like to inform you that you do not have the right to delete your data (the right to be forgotten), to the extent determined by Article 17(3)(b), (d) or (e) of the GDPR, as long as the basis for the processing of your data is Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR (it is limited due to the fact that it is processing for the purposes resulting from the provisions of law – the Ordering Party must process this data in accordance with the law) or Article 6(1)(e) of the GDPR (up to the establishment, exercise or defence of claims);
6. as a rule - the transfer of personal data, when the basis for processing is Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR. However, we inform you that: this right does not apply to processing that is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and is restricted in this procedure (Article 20(3) of the GDPR);
7. as a rule - to object to the processing of personal data. We also inform you that: as long as the basis for the processing of your data is Article 6(1)(c) (or, in the alternative: letter(b) of the GDPR, you unfortunately do not have the right to object to this (Article 21(1) of the GDPR);

We would like to point out that the law and the essence of procurement procedures related to the implementation of projects (financing from European or other funds, in particular project guidelines for the implementation of contracts may result in, in specific cases, further restrictions on your rights).
